

Section 1557 Notice Informing Individuals About Nondiscrimination and Accessibility

Rutgers University complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin (including shared ancestry or ethnic characteristics), age, disability, or sex. Rutgers University does not exclude people or treat them less favorably because of race, color, national origin (including shared ancestry or ethnic characteristics), age, disability, or sex.

Rutgers University:

- Provides people with disabilities reasonable modifications and free appropriate auxiliary aids and services to communicate effectively with us, such as:
  - Qualified sign language interpreters
  - Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats).
- Provides free language assistance services to people whose primary language is not English, which may include:
  - Qualified interpreters
  - Information written in other languages.

If you need reasonable modifications, appropriate auxiliary aids and services, or language assistance services, contact the office you are visiting for assistance.

If you feel that you have been denied reasonable modifications, appropriate auxiliary aids and services, or language assistance services, please contact the 1557 Coordinator.	1557 Coordinator:          Laura K.
